

4. Start Raspberry Pi 5

After burning the image, insert the SD card directly into the Raspberry Pi, then connect the monitor, power supply, mouse, and keyboard to the Raspberry Pi, and you can enter the Raspberry Pi system.

Under normal circumstances, the signal light will turn red when it is turned on, then turn green. Wait for a few seconds for the green light to flash irregularly, enter the desktop, and then the green light will be on.

